ANOTHER 'ECONOMICALLY UNFIT.'
 The Adams Woolen Company, Adams, Mass., capital $50,000 operating a nine-set mill, with 50 broad looms has been petitioned into bankruptcy by Smith & Cooley, of Stafford Springs. The company was incorporated in 1904 and has been a steady producer until the tariff agitation about spoiled the mill business in this country. "Economically unfit" is probably what will be said about it by the friends of the Administration.—Fibre and Fabric.

VACATION WITHOUT PAY PAYS.
 With the exception of the employees of the transportation and mechanical departments, all employees and officers, from office boy to president, of the St. Louis Southwestern Ry., will be forced to take a three days' vacation without pay during the month of June, according to press despatches. The reason is poor business. It is estimated that the saving effected by this means will amount to $12,000. The three-day furlough takes the place of cutting down the force.

FROM BEST TO WORST.
 When President Wilson says the industrial depression is psychological and world-wide, he makes a general statement which is not borne out by facts. Great Britain, for instance, has not for some time enjoyed such prosperity as that of today. Other countries, too, are enjoying an unusual business impetus. In short, from being a country of the greatest progress and prosperity, we have fallen to one having the least. And with no signs of betterment, till the iniquitous Tariff, now doing such deadly work is repealed.

FORMER GOVERNOR WILLSON'S CANDIDACY.
 Former Gov. A. E. Willson, candidate for the Republican Senatorial nomination, is sending out a circular in which he scores strongly the policies of President Wilson's administration. Among other things, he says: "The treaty for our Government to plead guilty to dishonorable conduct to Columbia and confess a fine of $25,000,000 and give Columbia free tolls in the Panama canal is a shameful act of dishonor and disloyalty to our country. This treaty is not prompted by conscience or honor, but by the meanest partisan politics in which the actors are willing to shame our country at an expense of $25,000,000 at the behest of organized black-mailers and grafters in order to try to stain the splendid achievements of the Republican administration of President Roosevelt."—Lexington Leader.

Every day's labor lost, every wage reduction to agree with the foreign level, must be counted as a tax. Yet they say the Tariff is a tax.

FOOLISH PHILOSOPHY.
 When a woman is in love she acts like a fool, but when a man is in love it isn't altogether acting. The difference between a bachelor girl and an old maid is about 10 years.
 Virtue is its own reward, for which reason it isn't necessary to advertise it.
 The people who never make mistakes must lead a mighty monotonous existence.
 Lots of people marry for love who don't succeed in carrying out the original scheme.
 Of course we endorse the "safety first" propaganda; all the same, when a young man really loves a young woman he ought to be game enough to get married.
 Probably it is better to have a sense of humor than to have no sense at all.
 The reason we wouldn't hire a man who never makes mistakes is because he would soon have our job.
 Undoubtedly it is bad policy in hot weather to watch the thermometer; but if we didn't watch ours it would soon hit the ceiling.

PAKING'S
RUINED HIS SPEECH.
 Obadiah Hicks, chairman of the board, was about to make a few remarks prior to the presentation of diplomas to the graduates of the high school class, says the Boston Post. Mr. Hicks was introduced by the high school superintendent, and, clearing his throat, began:
 "The time has come—"
 A suppressed titter rippled among the graduates and the friends of Mr. Hicks quivered uneasily in their seats.
 Before he could proceed with his speech the superintendent, who sat on the platform behind him, leaned forward and whispered, "has come!"
 Mr. Hicks halted, blushed, then began all over again:
 "The time has come for me—for me few to present to you grad—"
 "Has come!" prompted the superintendent.
 "Has come," corrected Mr. Hicks. Then he turned suddenly and heatedly on the superintendent:
 "Looky here, young feller! Who's amakin' this hys speech, yew or me? When I say 'has come,' and 'has went,' them's what I mean exactly. I hev did right smart of speechmaking' in my time and I hev allus managed to make folks understand what I was a tryin' to get at, even if I didn't never swaller no grammar."
 "Here, striplin's prance right up and get yewr sheep-skins and after yew go out to rattle with the world and happen sometimes tew jump the traces as I hev did and git mixt up in yewr grammar a little mite, don't lose no sleep over it, but jest go right along like your Uncle Obadiah."

LAW TO VIOLATE.
 About as little attention has been paid to the new game and speed laws as though they had never been enacted by the Legislature.—Mt. Olivet Tribune

AN EPISODE OF 51 YEARS AGO
 JULY 3d.
 On the third day of July, 1863, Gen. White in command of the forces on the Big Sandy detailed Major Brown with Co. D, G. and K., of the Tenth Ky. Cavalry to go to Pound Gap on an expedition, as there was a rumor that Johnnies were about to invade Kentucky. The Fourth was a very rainy day and we lay in camp, or rather in water, at Picketon, on the fifth. Lieut. White was in the advance with 20 men, the column being formed as follows: Co. G, D, K. & I. We were wading up a small creek about 8 a. m., when the advance guard was fired into and Tell Owens and McCarthy were wounded. Major Brown deployed Co. G. on the right and Co. D. on the left. We dismounted and went some distance when the bugle sounded the recall. We then went up the mountain to Pound Gap where we remained till night. When we started for Gladsville, some 25 miles distant. It was raining all the time. About 3 o'clock it quit raining. The column was halted, and we were told to camp on our revolvers and load our carbines. The boys were prompt in obeying the order. Our Chaplain, Hendricks, was riding along on the back taking off his old Panama hat. He said let's pray and if ever a prayer was answered that one was. He prayed for protection in the coming engagement. We moved forward silently about one mile, when this picket opened fire on our column charged into the town and captured 127 prisoners, including the Col. Conell and several commissioned officers destroying a wagon train of tents and guns without the loss of a man. We had 5 wounded which we brought away in a captured ambulance. How many we killed we never knew as we were on our way back in 2 hours' time. How many of the old boys remain. I would like to hear from them.
